IN SIXTY-FIRST YEAR.

Death Due to Inflammation of Stomach and Bowels.

Mrs. Ed. H. Price died yesterday morning at her home on South Liberty street, in her 61st year.

The end was not unexpected, as she had been in failing health for several months and confined to her bed for six weeks or more. The immediate cause of her death was inflammation of the stomach and bow-

Susan J. Phaup and Edward H. Price were married April 12, 1867, and have resided in Hopkinsville most, if not all, of their married life. The deceased was a native of Providence. Tenn., and was a daughter of Mr. Ben Phaup- She is survived by her husband and five daughters: Mrs. Lillie Belle Smith and Mrs. Emma Lee Longwell, of Atlanta, Ga.; Mrs. Geo. Randle and Mrs. Hayward Richards and Miss Allie May Price, of this city; two sisters, Mrs. Andrew Hall, of Atlanta, and Mrs. Sarah Howard, of Island, and one brother, Mr. James Phaup, of the same place.

Mrs. Price in her youth united with the Baptist church, but after her marriage to Mr. Price became a member of the Christian church to be with her husband. She was patient during her illness and was prepared for the time when she was called up higher. Her whole life was given to the care of her children and doing good for all with whom she came in contact. Her faith was beautiful, and the only sorrow that clouded her last days was the thought of having to leave those who were so dear to her.

Euneral services will take place at the residence at 2 p. m. today. Interment in Hopewell.
